

Russia's New Calendar.
Russia has decided to adopt a new calendar. Each year contains 13 months of twenty-eight days each, and begins on Monday and ends on Saturday. The main feature of this calendar is its apparent stability, and in this it resembles the sovereign's Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has held an unmovable position for half a century. Try it for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness, or insomnia, but be sure you get the genuine.

If the poor insist upon playing golf, it will be with this present, as with appendicitis, our best people will drop it.—Detroit Journal.

At the Summer Hotel.
Miss Gaby (speaking of the mountains)—It was terribly high, and papa like to never get over it.
Papa (who thinks she is speaking of something else)—Yes, and I told the landlord he had better put up a sandbag and work like any other footpad if he expected to make charges like that.—Baltimore American.

Part of the Cure.
Mr. Henpeck—The doctor says I absolutely must go away next week for a rest.
Mrs. Henpeck—Goodness! I can't possibly manage to get away to go with you then.
"Um—Um!" I guess the doctor must have known that.—Philadelphia Press.

FOR MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER.

The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle, So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

NOTE:—The records of the Paris Medicine Co., St. Louis, show that over one and one-half million bottles of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic were sold last year and the sales are continually increasing. The conclusion is inevitable that Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is a prescription for malaria having genuine merit, and any druggist or chemist will tell you so.

Satisfaction
is unusual with "Five-Cent cigar smokers," but it has been the everyday experience of hundreds of thousands of men who have smoked

Old Virginia Cheroots
during the last thirty years, because they are just as good now—in fact, better than when they were first made.

Three hundred million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked this year. Ask your own dealer. Price, 3 for 5 cents.

You Can Enjoy Yourself En route to Texas

In going to Texas, via Memphis and the Cotton Belt, you can enjoy a good dinner in the Parlor Cafe Car at a reasonable price, and withdraw to the Gentlemen's Observation Smoking Room to smoke your cigar in an easy chair, with surroundings as pleasant and comfortable as great as in your home or your club. Ladies will find their comfort provided for in the Ladies' Lounging Room. It will cost you only 50 cents extra to ride all day in this car (25 cents for a half day).

The Cotton Belt offers you the quickest and shortest route to Texas, without change of cars. Both day and night trains are equipped with comfortable coaches and fine sleeping chair cars, also Parlor Cafe Cars by day, and Pullman Sleepers at night. Write and tell us where you are going, and when you will leave, and we will tell you what your train will cost, and what train to take to make the best time and connections. We will also send you an interesting little booklet, "A Trip to Texas."

General Nat H. Harris.
The daily press of Mississippi, and of New Orleans and Memphis, have already made full and appropriate mention of the death of the distinguished soldier of the "Lost Cause." But our weekly chronicle of passing events would be incomplete without some reference to one who deserves to be held in loving and perpetual remembrance by the people of Mississippi.

General Harris was a native of Natchez and 66 years of age. When the civil war commenced he was a leading attorney in Vicksburg. He commanded a brigade of Mississippians in the Army of Northern Virginia, succeeding General Carnot Posey in 1864. His brilliant military career, and his noble personal character, were faithfully sketched at a memorial meeting of the patriotic citizens of Vicksburg. General Harris has been an invalid for some time. He died at Melvin, England. It is to be hoped that his remains will rest in the bosom of his native State that he loved so well and defended so valiantly.

The Pension Business.
Auditor Cole has addressed the following special circular to the County Boards of Pension Examiners:

"The unusual demand for pension blanks indicates that unless great care is exercised the pro rata will be no larger than usual, notwithstanding the appropriation has been doubled. Every unworthy person approved deprives the deserving of a part of the amount to be provided. You are therefore urged to criticize closely every application. The pension is intended only for those whose condition is caused by wounds or injuries received in service."

"Vote on application by ballot; write yes or no on a slip of paper; and on applications being approved have clerk make note of number voting for and against the applicant, as a guide to the auditor in passing on the application."

The Mississippi Railroad Commissioners, with Secretary Webb, are attending the conference of Southern commissioners on Lookout Mountain. All the Southern States, Alabama excepted, are represented.

If broom corn is worth from $75 to $100 a ton in Illinois, what's the matter with Mississippi soil and climate for that valuable product?

Hon. E. S. Candler, Jr., will succeed Hon. John M. Allen as representative of the First Congressional District. At the primary election on the 30th he led his distinguished competitor, Hon. W. M. Cox, by a very handsome majority.

Mrs. Ida M. Robinson, daughter of Dr. T. J. Mitchell, died in Jackson on Thursday morning last. She was universally beloved. Her funeral, from the Episcopal church, was very largely attended. At the cemetery, the rector, Rev. Mr. Sears, requested Bishop Galaway to offer prayer.

Prof. Dabney Lipscomb, of the University of Mississippi, and Miss Edwina Fulton, niece of Chancellor Fulton, were married August 28th. Our best wishes attend them.

And Willie Knew.
Little Willie—Paw, is ma a microbe?
Mr. Henpeck—Why, no, Willie. What makes you ask such a question?
"Well, the teacher told us that baldness was caused by a microbe."—Baltimore American.

Medal Awarded Walter Baker & Co.
Paris, Aug. 20.—The judges of the Paris Exposition have just awarded a gold medal to Walter Baker & Co., Ltd., Dorchester, Mass., U. S. A., for their preparations of Cocoa and Chocolate. This famous company, now the largest manufacturers of Cocoa and Chocolate in the world, have received the highest awards from the great International and other exhibitions in Europe and America; this is the third award from a Paris Exposition.—New York Tribune.

A Reflection.
"In your advertisement," said the man with the suave manner, as he entered the office of the ice company, "you say that there are no microbes on the ice that you furnish to your customers."
"Yes, sir," replied the treasurer, as he placed a blotter in front of his diamond stud so that the caller would not have to blink, "and we stand by our assertion."
"I stand by it, too," said the man with the suave manner, "and I have called to say that, as I have no fear of microbes, believing they are harmless, I wish you would direct your delivery man to leave at my residence in the future ice of such dimensions that two or three microbes, if they fell so inclined, could occupy it without unduly crowding each other."—Harper's Bazar.

SUSPICIOUS LIBERALITY.

It Was a Questionable Case But Jones Got His Wife Home in a Hurry.

"It was a mean trick," said Jones, with a smile, relating the Detroit Free Press, "but I wanted my wife to come home, and it was the only way I could think of to get her back. She went away about five weeks ago on a vacation and left me alone to get along as best I could. It wasn't long before I grew tired of the arrangement, tired of getting my meals downstairs, tired of sending checks in reply to her demands for more money. Three days ago I received a letter asking me to send her $20 at once. It was then that my plan suggested itself. By return mail I sent her a check for double the amount that she had asked for, and enclosed it with a note that read: 'Don't hurry back.' It worked as I thought it would. My wife returned by the first train with a strange gleam of inquiry in her eyes and she confirmed the horrible suspicions that she is laboring under. However, I am at home, and I am not losing any sleep over what she may suspect."

Pessimist and Fatalist.
The indignant looking passenger was about to speak, but the conductor headed him off by exclaiming in a loud tone of irritation: "This is the slowest train I was ever on. What's the use of having a schedule if we don't pay any attention to it? The drinking water tastes as if it had been off the kitchen range ten minutes. The car doesn't look as if it had been swept for a month, and it is full of idiots who insist on opening the windows when we go through tunnels, so that the cinders can blow in."
The passenger caught his breath and then exclaimed: "I was just about to say that this whole affair is an outrage. I don't know it. But you're lucky. You can travel a few miles and then get off and be happy. But I've got to stay on this train for hours every day of my life."—Washington Star.
